

Fact sheet: Exposé Scholarship [As of February 2024]

The Graduate Academy supports graduates in their process of planning a doctorate with funding to elaborate a detailed research concept for a PhD project. With a short-term scholarship of 1,250 Euros per month (for a maximum duration of six months), doctoral students are given the opportunity to carry out first research and to work out a dissertation proposal. The aim of this short-term scholarship is to secure further funding for the doctoral thesis.

Object of funding

- Elaboration of a detailed research concept for a dissertation project with the aim to secure further funding for the doctoral thesis.

Resources and payment

- Up to 6 months
- 1,250 Euros per month
- Funding is retroactively possible to April 1 (application deadline March 31) or to October 1 (application deadline September 30), respectively.

Eligibility to apply

- Graduates or students in their final stage who are planning a doctorate at Leibniz University Hannover.
- Additional employment is possible up to 538 Euros per month. Parental allowance (Elterngeld) is not considered as income.
