

Further Promotion plus⁺ Activities

Besides the three Promotion plus⁺ modules we offer additional workshops as well as networking opportunities with businesses, the non-profit and the public sector in Hanover and region.

Promotion plus⁺ Workshops

Would you like to acquire career competencies, for example in the fields of project management, communication or leadership? Please consult our qualification programme for workshops that provide you with competencies for a career outside academia.

Procedure and Application

Our workshops last up to two days and usually take place on a Friday or a Friday and Saturday. For most of the workshops we charge a fee, however, some of them are free of charge.

Current topics and dates as well as the application form can be found under "Qualification Programme" on our website.

Promotion plus⁺ Networking Events

Get to know interesting employers! By means of our networking events, we bring you in touch with regional partners from businesses as well as the non-profit and the public sector.

Procedure and Application

The Career Talks take place once or twice per semester as an after-work event. In each event, three business partners give an insight into their day-to-day work and are available for personal conversation afterwards. Participation is possible without prior notice.

The Company Visits take place once or twice per semester and are subject to registration.

Upcoming events and topics can be found under "Information and Networking Events" on our website.

With Promotion plus⁺ Alumni, you will stay in contact with the Graduate Academy and with each other.

Promotion plus⁺
A Programme of the Graduate Academy for Young Academics

Promotion plus⁺

Career Competencies and Professional Networks

In professional life, it is not only technical expertise that counts. Employers specifically search for young professionals who are able to combine their specialised knowledge with overall key competencies. Acquiring job-related skills is more important today than ever before for young academics.

With Promotion plus⁺ we offer a programme that helps you develop career competencies and presents career prospects outside academia. At the same time, we support you in establishing professional networks with businesses, the non-profit and the public sector in Hanover and region. An overview of our partners is available under "Further Partners" on our website.

The Promotion plus⁺ programme of the Graduate Academy is open to PhD students and postdocs of Leibniz University Hannover.

Programme Structure

According to your individual needs, the programme offers three modules and additional vocational trainings as well as networking opportunities with regional partners from businesses, the non-profit and the public sector.

Promotion plus⁺ qualifiziert (PhD and beyond)

Our programme for developing management skills offers a strong impetus for your future career. Promotion plus⁺ qualifiziert (PhD and beyond) conveys management and key competencies in concurrence with your research and helps to identify career prospects outside academia.

Contents

The trainings in the programme are carefully matched consecutive courses and cover the following core areas:

- management competencies | corporate entrepreneurship
- career planning und job application
- transferable skills

The trainings themselves have a strong practical relevance and are complemented by company visits, plenary discussions, talks and a speed dating with companies. With these additional events, we give you the chance of getting in touch with potential employers in the city and region of Hanover.

Procedure

The programme starts in October and lasts until the summer of the following year. The workshops take place during the semester.

Places are limited to up to 45 participants (three interdisciplinary groups of up to 15 people, including one English-speaking group). The time required for the programme is about 40 hours per term.

After successfully completing the programme, the participants will get a certificate documenting the attendance of the programme. This will be presented in a ceremonial closing event.

Application

The application deadline is July 1.

The participation fee is 120 Euro and can be paid in two instalments of 60 Euro. Please find the application form and further information on the application process under "Promotion plus⁺ qualifiziert" on our website.

Promotion plus⁺ Coaching

What will follow after I finished my PhD or my postdoc? What do I really want to do in my professional life and how do I get there? Promotion plus⁺ Coaching is a programme designed to help you systematically plan and develop your individual career strategies. This coaching programme makes you familiar with the instruments of the Life/Work Planning concept (L/WP) by Richard N. Bolles and you will have the opportunity to apply them in a practical phase.

Procedure

The coaching programme consists of two intensive and two additional workshops. Furthermore, participants should allow for approximately four hours work per week (group work with other participants) during the practical phase. Places are limited to up to 15 participants.

Application

The participation fee is 60 Euro. Application deadlines, the application form and further information can be found under "Promotion plus⁺ Coaching" on our website.

Promotion plus⁺ Mentoring

You are looking for a person that accompanies you in your career planning? Promotion plus⁺ Mentoring supports you in your search for a suitable mentor.

Procedure

An individual inquiry to the Graduate Academy is followed by clarifying your specific objectives and by establishing a mentoring tandem. The further arrangement of the mentoring relationship is largely embellished independently by the tandem itself but is accompanied by the Promotion plus⁺ programme coordinator.

Application

There is no participation fee. Further information can be found under "Promotion plus⁺ Mentoring" on our homepage.
